DETAILS

At approximately 1:30 p.m. on May 16, 2003, the former Blue Ridge Savings Bank in Greer, South Carolina, was robbed by one or more unknown subjects. After responding to the scene, officers with the Greer Police Department discovered three deceased individuals; a bank teller and two customers. All of the victims died as the result of gunshot wounds. The bank overlooked Interstate 85 and Highway 14. Law enforcement authorities are seeking information regarding a red vehicle, possibly an Oldsmobile Alero or Chevrolet Impala, which may have been in the area at the time of the robbery. Police are also seeking information on the identification of an unknown individual, shown in the sketches, who allegedly was in the bank just prior to the crimes.
